

PTO Meeting for Sep 12 20100 Meeting started at 6:31 pm

All board members were in attendance

1. Val introduced PTO Board.
2. Maria went over the budget for the coming year
3. Mrs. Russell asked for those attending to introduce themselves and what grade they had children in.
4. Harvest Fest was talked about and everything that is involved with putting it together. Christie Riggins has saved should be chairperson and form a committee. She was told to get notices home by end of week to look for at least 8 volunteers before going forward. If a committee is not formed Harvestfest will not take place.
5. Amy went over fundraising. Joe Corbi is our fall fundraiser and will go from 9/19-9/30 and delivery will be 10/27 we will be selling gift type products no food. Winter fundraiser will also be Joe Corbi but cookie dough and food products it will take place 11/14-11/30 with delivery 12/14. All items need to be picked up that day or thrown out due to no place to store the products. Spoke about Spring fundraisers and got many ideas from parents such as Yankee Candles, flower bulbs, and party light. Maureen Fullam is sending in info on bulbs we will discuss on later date after looking into them all and see what will bring us better profit. Trying to move away from money calendars.
6. Stage curtain was discussed. Robyn W. sent Paula new quote with new company and difference in price is about $1000.00 PTO has decided to pick up the difference in cost to get this moving. Mrs. Russell will again look into work order to get old curtain down. Paula will talk to Robyn to go forward with the curtain.
7. Mrs. Russell spoke about getting smart boards in the school and how the school can fund them. About 10,000 if we get 4 purchased. Will be brought up on a later date on how funds will be raised.
8. Junior Lego robotics discussed with many unanswered questions. Legos will be revisited when we have more answers on how many kids signed up and how many kits we will need to offer program. Idea was also brought up to have kids interested pay for it as an after school activity instead of it coming out of school funds.
9. Amy Mendrala put out the fact that she is leaving JCS and is looking for someone to take over the holiday store next year.

Meeting ended at 7:30p.m.
